SOLDIERS PATROL BUFFALO STREETS

Strike of Street Railway Men Causes Serious State of Affairs.

WANTS MORE TROOPS.

Company Refuses to Recognize Union, Plans of United Trades and Labor Council for General Strike.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 10.—At 11:15 a. m., troops began to deploy along Main street and Elmwood Avenue and it was announced that cars would immediately be started on these lines. A light rain is falling.

With little prospect of the street railway men accepting the company's counter proposition for reinstatement without recognition of the union and an urgent message to Albany for more troops, the strike situation here today was more serious than ever. The railway company announced its intention to run cars under military guard on the lines beginnig at 10:30 o'clock and large gatherings of strikers and their thousands of sympathizers early began forming on the side streets leading to the main street and Elmwood Avenue tracks. Repetition of the disturbances that resulted yesterday in the mortal wounding of one woman and the serious injury to half a dozen boys and men by the troops was feared.

Brigadier General Welsh, commanding the 2,700 troops now guarding the power houses, car barns and streets, sent a special courier to the adjutant general at Albany with the message that if troops are to be used at all there should be more than he has under his command at present. Simultaneously messages from prominent citizens and city officials were sent to Governor Sulzer protesting against the use of troops.

William D. Mahon, president of the International Association of Railway Employes, with other members of the executive board was considering the company's counter proposal, but there was little likelihood of it being accepted as one of the main objects of the strike was union recognition.

The executive board of the United Trades and Labor Council has called a special meeting of the entire council to recommend a general strike of 42,000 men of the 110 Buffalo locals affiliated with the Central Body unless the railway company comes to a speedy agreement with its men. Saturday night was to be set as the time limit for such an agreement, at which time the general strike would be called for Monday, it was said.

The individual deposits show an increase of $48,000.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Torrential rains in Arkansas, Louisiana and Southern Mississippi the last two days have sent great volumes of water into the already flooded streams in those sections of the country, greatly adding to the flood menace that now threatens certain sections of the Mississippi Valley. In Arkansas the precipitation has reached the enormous amount of ten inches. In some sections high winds accompanied the storms, greatly adding to the flood danger.

Several persons were shot or stabbed during the street car riots at Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday, and last night the riotnig became so general that Governor Sulzer has been asked to call out the entire state national guard, comprising 10,000 men, to preserve order.

Carrying out his announced policy of visiting the capitol as "a human being trying to cooperate with other human beings in a common service," President Wilson went to the Senate wing of the big building yesterday afternoon and conferred with the Democratic members of the finance committee for half an hour on the tariff.

A blanket of snow from four to ten inches deep, one of the heaviest falls of the winter, covered a large part of South Dakota, North Dakota, and Western Iowa, and is still falling. Snow blockades are feared on western South Dakota lines. The moisture will benefit crops.

The begininng yesterday of a general exodus to other countries of the families of workingmen marked the first open move in the plan of the socialists of Belgium to call a general strike next Monday in an attempt to force the Belgian government to grant suffrage to all men over the age of twenty-one. More than 400,000 workmen are connected with this movement, and the general belief is that Belgium is facing a crisis which may result in the overthrow of the present form of government, or at least an attempt to do so.

Sacrificing his life to prevent possible injury to school children, who thronged the street, Frederick Restine, 47 years old, was crushed to death yesterday under the hoofs of a pair of runaway horses in West Philadelphia. The pupils in a large school in the vicinity had just been dismissed, and the street was filled with boys and girls, when the horses attached to a delivery wagon came dashing along without driver. Young children stood horror stricken in the middle of the street when shouts of warning announced the approach of the runaways. Restine sprung from the sidewalk and grasped the dragging reins. He had wound the leather throngs about his wrists, when he lost his footing and was beaten to death beneath the horses hoofs. His standstill.

The Rev. Marion Capps, a Methodist preacher of White Bluffs, Ark., recently convicted of a charge of burning his two children, Rose, aged 8, and Priscilla, aged 2, to death, was yesterday sentenced to hang at Fort Smith, Ark., May 30. Two children, who survived the fire, told the jury their father tied them to an oil-soaked bed. A third child died from injuries sustained in the flames. The testimony of the children was highly sensational and was largely responsible for the minister's conviction. To save their own lives they were forced to flee from the burning building to the home of a neighbor, where they summoned assistance, but too late to save the lives of the two children who were burned outright and the other who died from burns.

In an automobile accident on the Baltimore pike, about five miles southeast of Hagerstown, Md., yesterday afternoon, John D. Oswald, aged 26 years, was instantly killed. F. Earl Neikirk and J. Ernest Shockey, were seriously injured, and S. W. Kent Miller, driver and owner of the car, was slightly hurt. The accident was caused by the spring hanger on the car giving away as the party was crossing a bridge over Antietam Creek. Miller lost control of the car, which ran into an embankment and turned over on its side, throwing out all of its occupants, save Miller.

MRS. PANKHURST EXPECTS RELEASE

Policemen Surround Holloway Jail and Disperse Gathering.

10,000 ARE PRESENT.

Unidentified Woman Had Revolver in Her Possesion When Taken in Charge by Officers.

London, April 10.—Policemen surrounded Holloway jail and promptly dispersed the crowds atempting to gather in expectation of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst's release today When 8,000 or 10,000 persons were gathered at the prison last night waiting to see the famous militant leader carried out, an unidentified woman was arrested with a revolver in her possession. Immediately Scotland Yard ordered that no loitering be permitted around the jail.

The release of Mrs. Pankhurst under the provisions of Home Secretary McKenna's "Ticket of leave" plan was hourly expected, as it was known that the leader is weakening now under her hunger strike. This is the second day that she has been in Holoway jail and Mrs. Pankhurst has not touched any food since a few minutes before Sir Charles Montague Lush sentenced her to prison for three years for inciting the bomb explosion that partly wrecked the country home of the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

A battered cannister in possession of Scotland Yard Detectives may prove a clue leading to the arrest of the suffragettes wanted for the recent train outrages. An empty car in the Kingston train was partly burned last night and in the ruins was found a cannister. About the same time a guard on another Kingston train found an unexploded cannister of powder in a car, with lighted fuse, which had been burned to within half inch of the explosive. That cannister was similar to the one found in the empty car that was partly burned at Stockport last week. Fragments of such a canister, too, were found in the wrecked railway station at Oxford several days ago, and the police believe that the same person arranged all the explosives and combustibles used in the recent militant outrages.

ANOTHER TESTIMONIAL.

Thomas Nelson Page Heartily Commends C. H. Callahan's Book.

April 7th, 1913.

Charles H. Calahan, Alexandria, Va.

My Dear Mr. Callahan: It was not until I had an opportunity to look through your book, which you were good enough ta leave me, that I had the least idea what a monumental work you had prepared. With all the Washington literature that has been accumulated for over one hundred years, it appeared to me al most impossible that anything new and important could be written of him; yet you have accomplished this unexpected feat. Not only is your book, in its general scope and get-up a capital piece of work and one which both you and the historical Masonic Lodge and Memorial Association may justly be proud of, but it shows an amount of labor, care and skill which may call forth not only my admiration but my warm thanks.

The work is a real contribution to our history, and I feel both a personal and state pride that, without much heralding there should have issued from the historical town of Alexandria, so important an addition to our annals. I have not the good fortune to be a Mason, but I am a Virginian, and you have made us all your debtors. Pray accept from me an assurance of my high appreciation of the honor you have done me in presenting me with a copy of your book.

Yours sincerely,
THOMAS NELSON PAGE.

ROW AT A COLORED DANCE.

Green-eyed Monster Causes Friction Between Negroes Ard Arrest Follows.

Officer Reid brought George Munday, colored, before the Police Court this morning to answer a charge preferred by Edward Lane, colored, of assault with a pistol.

According to the statement of the complainant, he was at a dance given at a hall on Gibbon street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, last Monday night when Munday became incensed at his attentions to a female attendant, and upon meeting him outside the hall drew a pistol made threats, daring him to move from the spot on which he stood.

Several witnesses were examined, but Lane was unable to sustain his charge and Munday was released.

Kitty Arnold and Margaret Kelly had been cited to appear and answer the charge of disorderly conduct. Neither could be found when the case was called and they forfeited their collateral.

A. H. S. SWAMPS THE TECHS.

Score Twelve to Four Against the Washingtonians Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon the Alexandria High School swamped Technical High School at the local ball park, by the score of 12 to 4. After the fourth inning the result was hardly ever in doubt, although there were several times when a base hit by Tech. would have given them a couple of runs. The game was a long drawn out affair on account of the the number of bases on balls which were given. Raison relieved Anderson in the sixth inning and held the visitors runless in the rest of the game.

The feature of the game was the excellent playing of Poss on the offensive. Out of five trips to the plate he secured five hits, stole three bases and made two runs. In one of his hits the ball cleared the corner of the fence in right field, but he was only allowed two bases.

The summary:

A. H. S.....—0 2 0 3 0 0 2 5 x 12
Tech.....—0 0 0 1 3 0 0 0 0 4

Bateries: A.H. S.—Anderton, Raison and Nalls; Tech.—Defendorf, Gallagher, and Hopkins. Runs: Deavers, Byrne, Anderton, Fisher, 2, Nalls, Howard, Raison, (2), Poss (2), and Wenzel. Hardell, McKinney, (2), Hopkins. Two base hits off Anderton, and Raison, 8; off Defendorf, 8; Gallher, 13, struck out by Anderton and Raison, 8; by Defendorf and Gallher, 4. Bases on balls, Ander ton and Raison, 7; Defendorf, 8, Galleler, 7.

POPE SUDDENLY RALLIES TODAY

Heart Action of Pontiff Feeble After a Restless and Trying Night.

HE WILL BE 78 IN JUNE.

Physicians Claim he is Suffering From Influenza—Insomnia Alarms Attendants.

Rome, April 10.—Pope Pius X rallied considerably this afternoon and talked with Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state. He told the cardinal that he was determined to recover and would be well in time personally to celebrate Pentecostal mass at St. Peter's on May 1st in honor of Constantine year.

The pope's improved condition, Dr. Andrea Amici said, was due directly to the fact that His Holiness took nourishment this morning. Ignoring the injunction of his physician, the pontiff for three days refused to eat anything, but was persuaded to take the yolk of an egg in milk and cordial today. This gave him strength, and when his fever disappeared as it has previously at midday, he felt better.

Pope Pius has exhibited no symptoms other than those always attending influenza, and it is only his advanced years and his apathetic attitude that have made his condition alarming.

Rome, April 10.—The condition of Pope Pius apparently was unchanged early today. After a restless and trying night his fever had disappeared this morning and his temperature was normal. His heart action however, was feeble and gave the papal physicians grave concern.

Professor Ettore Marachifava, chief of the Vatican physicians declared their advice is blamed by the physic-nothing more serious than the consequences of an attack of influenza naturally would be to any man of his years. He will be seventy-eight years old on June 2.

The refusal of Pope Pius to follow theinr advice is blamed by the physicians for the seriousness of his condition. Today Drs. Marchiafava and Amici were authority for statement that for three days the pope refused all food, finally consenting this morning to drink a mixture containing cordial, milk, an dthe yolk of an egg.

It is the belief of his physicians that the pope now has successfully passed the crisis of his relapse ,though the crisis of the influenza and fever is yet to come.

His holiness is so weakened that the doctors today forbade his sisters to talk to him.: He has not slept normally for 48 hours and his insomnia alarms. Drs. Marchiafava and Amici almost as much as his retarded heart action.

Thaw to Appear Before Grand Jury.

New York, April 10.—Harry K. Thaw, accompanied by two attendants from Matteawan Asylum and his personal detective, Roger O'Mara of Pittsburg, came to this city today to appear before the grand jury in connection with the alleged $25,000 bribery plot to get him his freedom.

Justice Seabury called the grand jury into court and told them not to allow Thaw to make any statement involving himself in any wrong-doing.

"In the eyes of the court" said the judge, "Thaw is insane, and irresponsible and can do no wrong. Any testimony he gives must be corroborated by other witnesses before you may accept it."

Thaw is expected to tell of his dealings with Attorney J. Nicholson Anhut, alleged to be the mediator in the scheme to win Thaw his freedom by the payment of $25,000 to Dr. Russell, the former head of Matteawan deposed by Governor Sulzer when the scandal became public several weeks ago.

Buffalo, April 10.—Troops charged a mob of a hundred strikers and sympathizers that stoned a car in front of No. 6 Police Station in Main street this afternoon and several shots were fired but no one was seriously injured. The bullets struck the police station walls.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Traffic over the Southern Railway is said to be heavier at this time than at any period (save during the peach season) in the past twenty years.

A few pioneer shad have made their way to Alexandria some of which are being taken by our gillers, but the unseasonable weather has retarded fishing operations considerably. Prices were firm again this morning, shad selling at 75 cents for fine roe and 50 cents for the best.

What promises to be one of the most interesting games on the A. H. S. schedule will be staged at the local ball park tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 p. m., when the boys in the Maroon and White uniforms will line up against the fast team representing Frederick School, Md. The A. H. S. boys have been putting up an excellent article of ball in the last few games. Raison will probably do the twirling for the home boys. It is a noticeable fact that the attendance at the High School games has been very slim despite the fact that every game has been interesting.

The admission for tomorrow's game will be 15 cents to defray the visting team's expenses.

BLOCKADE OF COAST.

Austria-Hungarian Troops Hold up Trains Bound for Montenegro and Isolate Little Kingdom.

London, April 10—Secretaries were at work today transcribing the concessions that the powers are willing to make to the Balkan allies, as agreed upon by the ambassadors, in consultation at the foreign office.

Replying to the formal demands made by the allies last week, the powers have said they are walling to make the new Turkish frontier a straight line from Enos on the Aegean to Midia on the Black Sea, instead of having it follow the courses of the Maritza and Ergone rivers. They appease Greece by intimating that most of the Aegean Islands shall fall to that nation, and they agree to leave the indemnity question to an international commission, meeting at Paris. The powers will insist on fixing the boundaries of autonomous Albania.

Paris, April 10.—It was learned today from a reliable semi-official source that the powers offered King Nicholas of Montenegro 20,000,000 francs, ($4,000,000) to abandon the siege of Scutari. The King it was said, refused the offer and demanded $20,000,000.

Antivari, April 10.—The former blockade of the entire Montenegrin coast by the International fleet began at 8 a. m., today. The fleet, made up of Austria-Hungarian, British, German, French and Italian warships and approved by Russia, has blockaded Antivari since last week and now no vessels of any sort will be allowed to leave or approach any part of the country's coast line. Austria-Hungarian soldiers are holding up all trains bound for Montenegro, at the frontier, and the little kingdom is now practically isolated.

Reform of Election Laws.

Albany, N. Y., April 10.—Gov-Sulzer sent to the legislature today special message for the reform of the election laws and direct state wide primaries. In urging the primary laws the Governor declared:

"I know that the people of the Commonwealth in common with the people of our sister states, believe that if they are qualified to choose by their votes on election day by governors, judges, senators and congressmen, they are also competent on primary day to nominate these same officials not some of these officials, but all of them. If it is wise to trust people with the power to nominate some public officers, I am sure it is wise to trust them with the power to nominate all public officers. It is as wise to trust them to nominate a Governor as a constable, a judge of the court of appeals as a justice of the peace."

Will Attend Morgan's Funeral.

St. Paul, Minn., April 10.—James J. Hill left St. Paul today for New York, to attend the funeral of John P. Morgan next Monday. In addition to Hill's attendance at the funeral service it is believed his presence in New York is imperative to adjust financial matters in which he and Morgan were associated.

Escaped Assasination.

Hankow, April 10.—It was believed here today that General Li Yuan Huang, vice president of China and President Yuan Shi-Kai's most powerful rival, again escaped assasination at Wu Chang, across the river, yesetrday. It was reported here and also at Pekin and Tokio that General Li was killed, but later it was said that he escaped. He discovered an alleged plot among his subordinates in time to save his life and caused the arrest of twenty of the alleged plotters. Two years ago General Li was similarly reported dead at the hands of assassins.

Two Bronze Guns Donated to R. E. Lee Camp Confederate Veterans For Ornamental Use

R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans will shortly receive two brass cannon together with outfit of cannon balls which will be placed in some portion of the city for ornamental purposes. Notification that the cannon would be sent was received yesterday by Mayor Fisher from the War Department who wrote that the guns would be shipped from Watervliet, N. Y., under the provisions of the act of Congress of March 4th ,1918. The communication is as follows:

War Department, April 5, 1913.
The Mayor of the City of Alexandria, Virginia.
Sir:—
Subject: Donation of obsolete ordnance.

"I have the honor to inform you that the Act of Congress approved March 4th, 1913, (Public 442) (S 8273), provides, among others, for the donation to the City of Alexandria of two bronze or brass cannon with their carriages and a suitable outfit of cannon balls, for use of R. E. Lee Camp Confederate Veterans. Accordingly the commanding officer of the Watervliet Arsenal, Watervliet, N. Y., has been instructed to turn over to you, or on your order, for the City of Alexandria, two obsolete 12-pdr bronze cannon and forty obselete 12-pdr cast-iron shell, and to communicate with you in regard to route of shipment, payment of transportation charges, etc. as, under the law, the United States must be at no expense in connection with this donation. It is suggested that you place yourself in communication with the commanding officer of the Watervliet Arsenal in regard to this matter..

"There are no carriages available for these guns, but for ornamental pursopes they can be neatly mounted on a low masonry pedestal or pillar, similar to that shown on the accompanying blue print, which, however, is sent you for illustration only, as the dimensions thereon do not pertain to the 12-pdr bronze gun.

"The guns referred to herein ars not considered safe for firing.

"A blue print showing a pyramid of shell, with instructions for permanently piling them, is inclosed.

"Respectfully,
R. BIRNIE,

ENFORCING THE DOG LAW.

Owners of Unmuzzled Canines Before the Police Court This Morning

Officer Kern reports having coralled 31 dogs since the crusade against unmuzzled and unlicensed animals began on Monday. The war will be continued until the city shall have been cleared of the nuisance.

Two residents were before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of allowing unmuzzled dogs to roam at large. It was shown, however, that the animals had not been purposely turned loose in the streets, and that their taxes had been paid and muzzles procured, but that during the early morning hours they had escaped from yards while their owners were asleep. It was also shown that the animals are generally muzzled when brought into the streets.

Justice Caton said that while determine to enforce the provisions of the new law, he was satisfied that in the cases before him the owners of the dogs had not allowed them to roam without muzzles, that it was simply accidental and that their appearance outside the premises of their owners was not the purpose of their owners. He, however, suggested that due care be taken in future to prevent the dogs from appearing on the streets without muzzles

Officer Reid yesterday afternoon killed a dog supposed to be suffering from rabies on King street, between Fayette and Payne.

TAKEN FOR SUFFRAGETTES.

Women's Missionary Union, However, Oppose Movement.

A quarterly meeting of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union of the district embracing Alexandria City and county, and Fairfax and Loudoun counties was held yesterday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in this city. About 30 delegates were present. They were entertained by the local union, of which Miss Rosalie Broaddus is president. The adjournment of the meeting was synchronous with the dismissal of the girl's school, and when the latter saw the delegates marching the children immediately assumed they were a body of suffragettes which had come to Alexandria from Washington, and expelled their convictions in words intended to be understood.

During the meeting of the union one of the delegates had expressed her earnest disapprobation of the proceedings of the militant suffragettes, and the ladies were indignant at being taken for hikers.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

MANY ELIGIBLE IN NORFOLK.

In Twenty-Seven Leading Churches Only One-Third Men Have Paid Poll Tax.

Norfolk, Va. April 10.—The delinquency of the church people of Norfolk in the performance of their political duties is the subject of an announcement made by the Public Welfare League, in which it is shown that, out of the aggregate number of eligible male members of twenty-seven leading Norfolk churches represented in the Tidewater Ministerial Union, only one-third are prepared to vote.

Data bearing out this statement of the proportion of voters among the members of these churches who are eligible to qualify has been presented to the Norfolk preachers. The impression which the information made on the ministers is expressed in a resolution which the Ministerial Union adopted calling upon all the pastors to urge their congregations to square themselves with the poll-tax books.

That an astoundingly large number of their male members over twenty-one years old, were not voters, having failed to meet the poll-tax prerequisite was, of course, already known to most of the preachers. Many of them have been preaching on the subject for months, while in some of the churches active canvassing to get all their eligible members qualified has been in progress nearly a year. Nevertheless it is said that the ministers generally were not prepared to receive without some surprise the information that only one-third of their members who ought to be voters were qualified to cast the ballot in the settlement of political issues.

SCHOOLS IN HARRISONBURG.

Harrisonburg Stirred by Recommendations for Curtailing Expenses.

Harrisonburg, Va., April 10.—Not in many moons has Harrisonburg been as excited over anything as she is now over the "school question." By some means a special committee of the Council was appointed to "investigate" the local school situation. Like a thunderclap the committee reported and recommended that the school appropriation be reduced from $15,000 to $10,000 for the coming year. The committee suggests that the office of town superintendent be abolished and the superintendent be put back in the high school as a teacher; that the commercial course be dropped; that music be likewise dispensed with; that the teaching force be reduced by the dismissal of three teachers and cheaper teachers be secured for other places. And, to add to the excitement, the committee announces that a second report will soon be forthcoming.

Already Professor James C. Johnston has resigned from the High School, and it is rumored that a dozen other teachers are in a state of near-resignation.

Death of Rev. M. F. Keiter.

Winchester, Va., April 10.— Rev. More F. Keiter, formerly publisher of the Winchester Leader, later General Publishing agent, at Dayton, O., of the Radical United Brethren Church and an evangelist, died of pneumonia Tuesday, at Bremen, Ind., aged 64 years. One daughter, Mrs. Eva Mitchell, of Huntington, Ind., and one brother, Charles F. Keiter, this county, survive.

Tokio, April 9.—Li Yung Hang, long the rival of President Yuan-Shi Kai for the leadership of China, was assassinated today in Wu Chang, a town in the province of Hu Peh, opposite Hankow, according to a dispatch received here today from Pekin.

Y. W .C. CONVENTION MEETS.

Baltimore Delegates at Richmond. Mrs. Penrose Elected President.

Richmond, Va., April 9. — Delegates to the fourth biennial convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States have arrived in time to attend the opening session, which began at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church.

Convention officers were elected as follows:

Mrs. Stephen B. Penrose, of Walla, Walla, Wash., president; Miss Katherine Hawes, president of the Richmond association, first vice-president; Mrs. Kendall Emerson, of Massachusetts, second vice-president; Miss Lillian Sherman, of California, and Miss Anna McClintosh, of Colorado, national secretaries.

The convention will take steps to make more effective the work of the associations throughout the country and to influence the policies of the association work abroad, where the American secretaries have been placed.

Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, and a member of the student committee of the national board, will address a rally Saturday evening.

Bicyclist Injured.

Harrisonburg, Va., April 10. — A band of gypsies several nights ago picked up near Tenth Legion the unconscious form of W. A. Welch. He was severely injured about the head and abdomen. Near him in the road was his bicycle. Though unable to explain what happened, Mr. Welch, who has rallied, thinks his bicycle collided in the dark with a blind horse, which the gypsies left in the road. He was probably kicked by the animal.

College Wants Dr. Mitchell.

Richmond, Va., April 10.—Dr. S. C. Mitchel, president of the University of South Carolina, spent today in Richmond. He has been proffered the presidency of the Virginia Medical College, which institution grows out of the consolidation of the University of Medicine and the Virginia Medical College, effective after the close of the present terms. While pleased with the outlook, it is understood that the salary of the president of the medical college will not reach that paid him by the university of South Carolina, which is $5,000 annually, and for this reason Dr. Mitchell probably will not accept.

Yacht Pilgrim Damaged.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—The sloop yacht Pilgrim, owned by John A. Royal, of Boston, and built originally as a cupe defender, was towed into Norfolk yesterday crippled by a collision with the tail of the Horseshoe Lightship. But for the prompt arival of the motor tug, Solicitor, the Pilgrim, Captain Spurling, her master, said today, might have sunk. The Pilgrim was bound from Portland, Maine, to Beaufort, N. C.

SUICIDE IN LAWYER'S OFFICE.

Son of Distinguished Lawyer Swallows Poison.

Roanoke Va., April 10.—A hurried telephone call was received at police headquarters at 2 o'clock yesterday morning for an officer to go to the law office of McCormick, Smith & Brown. The officers found Province McCormick, son of Marshall McCormick, of Berryville, and Roanoke, reclining in a chair in what the officer presumed was a drunken stupor. He shook him. The dying man opened his eyes as if he wished to speak, but he never uttered a word. The officer called for a physician, who arrived 10 or 15 minute slater.

It is believed that immediately after taking poison young McCormick repented of his rash act and called police headquarters, with the hope that something might be done to save his life, btu the poison he had swallowed, which was cyanide of potassium, was too powerful to permit of medical or other aid in saving his life.

That he had premeditated suicide is plainly shown by several letters he had written and which were under the chair in which he was sitting One of the letters was addressed to his father, one to his mother and three to the stenographer in the office of the dead man's father. She will turn them over, personally to the elder McCormick, on his return to the city from Berryville, where he was at the time his son committed suicide.

An effort was made immediately to communicate with the dead man's father and he asked that the body be shipped to Berryville for interment.

Province McCormick's tragic end was the first death to occur in the family of nine children. He was 33 years old.

He came here from Washington about six weeks ago and was promoting land sales in the Far West and was also engaged in civil engineering He had served terms of enlistment in the United States Army and Navy.

The stenographer says the letters contain no mention or hint of the cause of suicide. McCormick was heard to mention earlier in the day that his life had amounted to nothing and it is thought he was melancholy. He had few friends here and they are unable to find a cause for suicide. The stenographer refuses to give out any statement, except to express deep sorrow.

CHEAP LIVING IN ALEXANDRIA.

This is the season of the year when the cost of living drops in Alexandria owing to the opening of the fishing season when our markets are flooded with the most delicious specimens of the finney tribe that are caught anywhere in the world. With fresh herring selling at 25 cents per dozen the table can be supplied at very little cost. While some people think herring an inferior fish among those who have lived along the Potomac for years it is regarded as one of the sweetest and most delicious of fish. Col. Withers Waller, one of the veteran fishermen of this section of Virginia who lived at Widewater on the Potomac preferred herring to any other fish and had one on his table every day in the year although shad, rock, trout and bass were caught by the thousands in his nets.

But if ones taste is above the cheap and plentiful herring the table can be supplied at a slight additional cost with the delicious Potomac shad which is in a class by itself.

No other fish that swims can compare with it, not even the shad which seek spawning grounds in other streams. Philadelphia has boasted of the shad seined in the Delaware, but for our part we have never thought much of them, having detected always in their meat and roe a peculiarity of flavor not at all agreeable, and entirely different from that of our own Potomac brand.

The reason for this has been a mystery until recently when an explanation is given by a cotemporary. Old-time fishermen on the Delaware report that the shad caught in that river have an oily flavor,, as if perhaps, they had been burning the midnight lamp in their schools! Anyhow, whatever the cause, the shad hooked or netted in the Delaware are impregnated with coal oil. Slightly noticeable last year, the Rockefeller flavor is even more pronounced this season, owing, it is said, to the fact that waves of oil come down the Schuykill an dthus pollute the water sof the Delaware.

SALARIES OF AMABASSADORS.

While it is no doubt true that the salaries paid American representatives to foreign counties is small compared with the demands that confront them, there has been a gross exaggeration of the amount of money required by an ambassador to represent this government with dignity $17,500 is a small sum when liveried servants, gasoline equipages by the dozen and gorgeous receptions are on the program but we are old-fashioned enough to believe that all of this reckless spending of money is not really necessary. Certainly it is extravagance is to take the place of ability and if money is to supplant brains.

WE ARE ENVIOUS OF PETERSBURG.

According to the Index Appeal of Petersburg the new auto police patrol wagon is due to arrive in that city within a few days. The police commissioners have fitted up a garage and have employed two chauffeurs who will receive a salary of $60 a month. They will remain on duty at all times and the garage is connected with the police station by a signal-phone. Lucky Petersburg. We have been endeavoring to get a little one-horse patrol wagon for six years, but have been unsuccessful. Although the police commissioners presented a plan by which the wagon could be operated at practically no expense to the city and it was shown that the police could acomplish one-thrid more work by its assistance than they are now doing, it has been impossible to get Council to consider the matter.

THEY'RE OFF AT THE BALL PARK.

Today marks the beginning of the great American sport and in 16 cities the nerve racking race for the two pennants have been started. Hundreds of Alexandrians went to Washington today to witness the Climbers start the season which we hope will give them the right to change the name of Climbers to that of Champions before the winter snows. Our hearts are with Clark Griffith and his sturdy youngsters.

ONE SURE SIGN OF GREATNESS.

The Baltimore Sun in commenting on an incident in the career of Viscount Woolsey in refusing to answer an unjust attack which was made upon him, ends with the following paragraph:

"An infallible sign of a great man is his ability to rest silent under slander and misrepresentation."

TO GATHER AT MONTICELLO.

Many Will Celebrte Jefferson's Birthday Sunday.

Plans are under way for observance of Jefferson's birthday next Sunday at Monticello, the famous Virginia estate where Jefferson is buried.

Following the custom of President Cleveland, President Wilson will send a wreath to be placed on the tomb, along with numerous other wreaths. A delegation of the Daughters of the Revolution from Illinois will be welcomed at Monticello by a representative of the Daughters of the Revolution of Virginia, and appropriate exercises held. A number of Democratic clubs are expected at Monticello to pay tribute.

A bronze statuette of Thomas Jefferson, a miniature first copy of the one presented by Commodore Uriah P. Levy to the United States and now in the capitol rotunda, was presented to Speaker Clark by Representative Levy, of New York yesterday. The statuette is twenty inches high and is a copy of the David statue of Thomas Jefferson presented to the United States by LaFayette.

Uriah Levy was an uncle of Representative Levy, whose idea is that the statuette of the father of Democracy, according to the letter of presentation, would be fittingly appropriate on the speaker's desk now that all brancehs of the government are under Democratic control.

POLICE SUSPECT MURDER.

Body of Retired Silk Manufacturer Found on Railway Tracks.

Allentown, Penn., April 10.—Investigation by the police led to the announcement that August Simon, retired silk manufacturer whose body was found on the railroad tracks near here today had been shot and thrown over the railing of the embankment. The police found a note in the man's pocket directing that the funeral be held in the morgue and the body shipped dto Philadelphia but the handwriting was declared to be nothing like Simon's an the police believe it a trick to make the death appear that of a suicide.

Simon was a wealthy retired manufacturer formerly of Paterson, N. J. He had been in ill health, which led to an early report of suicide.

The body was badly mangled but examination showed a bullet wound in the head. Suspicion was aroused by signs of a struggle on the embankment near the spot where the body was found. Then when the note in his pocket was declared a forgery by Simons' family the police became confident they had had a murder mystery to deal with.

TELL IT TO SWEENEY.

William H. Sweeney is head of our schools,
To him kids due deference pay,
if you've got an objection to how things are run,
Just tell it to Sweeney today.

He keeps them in order and lays down the rules
Which children must strictly obey,
If you don't like the system and think it is wrong,
Why, tell it to Sweeney today.

Our bold superintendent is handsome and stout,
His spirits are blithesome and gay,
If you'd like to complain of the captain's good looks,
Just tell it to Sweeney today.

His job isn't easy and troubles galore
Make his task real work and not play,
But he'll hear that suggestion you're anxious to make,
So tell it to Sweeney today.

If Michton sold hats cheaper than Herman Friedlander, would Charley Howell?

It's awfully discouraging. The authorities hardly get Mrs. Pankhurst sentenced for exploding a bomb under Lloyd-George's residence when the dear girls blow up Dudley Castle.

We had to cut out some of our verses yesterday because an extremely modest gentleman learned about them and felt that he couldn't stand the publicity. They were lines that would have insured our place in the list of the world's famous poets. We simply say this to convince you that the gentleman's modesty was not contagious.

A scholar and a gentleman,
A soldier you'll agree,
No one enjoys a social life
More thoroughly than he,
We'll toast him in a verse or two,
This Colonel Jack Marye.

MANY BARRED FROM GALLERY.

Inadequate Seating Capacity of The House is Criticised.

While praise is heard on every hand for the manner in which the history making event in Congress Tuesday was handled, there is much criticism of the inadequacy of the gallery seating arrangements, in the House. Many who had expected admission to the gallery to hear President Wilson's address, were unable to do so. Others experienced great difficulty in finding places.

Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, wife of the vice-president, with three friends, was sone of those who met this condition when she appeared in the House corridors. She was barred from the executive gallery because it was dangerously crowded.

Appealing to Representative Flood, whose committee rom is directly opposite the gallery door, she remained with her party while the Virginian made a personal fight for a place for her. Finally he was successful, but Mrs. Marshall's friends were forced to remain outside.

Conditions in the diplomatic gallery, were equally bad. Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce had difficulty in obtaining seats in the third row back, and Ambassador and Mrs. Jusserand, of France, came near to being barred from entering at all. One minister and the first secretary from a big embassy were refused admittance altogether.

MURDEROUS NEGRO ATHLETE.

Attacks Woman and Shoots Butcher Who Appears on the Scene.

Phillipsburg, N. J., April 10.—Salvatore Merli, proprietor of a meat market here, was shot and badly injured yesterday by James White, colored, 24 years old, of Aaston, Pa. White was graduated from the Easton High School in 1908, playing on the baseball and football teams and made a record as an athlete.

While the affair is shrouded in some mystery, it is alleged that White went to the home of Mrs. Merli's sister, Mrs. Mogar, and attacked her. Later he appeared at the Merli home and caused a disturbance. As Merli came down stairs White drew a revolver, and, without a word, sent a bullet into his cheek. As he replaced the weapon Mrs. Merli deftly removed it, and she, her sister, and another woman attacked the negro, overpowered him and held him until the arrival of officers. He was committed. At the Easton hospital a flattened bullet was removed from Merli's throat. He will recover.

HELPING HER PICK OUT HAT

Only the Gay and Graceless Bachelor Can See Anything Comic About the Proceedings.

"Dearie, I want you to go with me one day this week and help me select a hat."

This is not a request. It is a command that no married man dares disobey. Hubby is right now bracing himself for the shock that comes at least twice in every year. A few of the poor, unfortunate husbands have already received their orders, and the rest are looking for the worst any day now.

This thing of helping your wife buy a hat is tragedy. While it may seem funny to a bachelor, this expedition into the jungles of ostrich feathers and mountains of bandboxes is not a married man's idea of a good time.

He submits to the awful torture twice a year, just before Easter and again in September. No, he doesn't like it; he does it to keep peace in the family. It helps to keep the police away from the door. He would welcome the electric chair, a whole day's session with the dentist or a double dose of grand opera if he had his choice. Not that his wife cares a rap about his opinion. No matter what hat she picks out, she knows beforehand she is not going to like it, and she takes him along to shoulder the blame.

In the spring, when the young man's fancy is turning lightly to thoughts of love, the married man's frenzy—he hasn't any fancy—is turning seriously to thoughts of the Easter millinery hunt. It takes him six months to get over the experience, and just as he has reached the point where he can look at a bandbox without weeping he has to endure the suffering all over again.

HAD NO MERCY FOR AVIATOR

Country Hardware Man's Advancing Scale of Prices Seemed to Show a Slight Prejudice.

Jules Vedrines, the world's champion aviator, complained in Chicago of America's indifference to aviation.

"The expense, perhaps, has something to do with it," he said. "Flying in America does, indeed, come high.

"I know a young Philadelphian who recently mastered the monoplane. With his mechanician he was flying to Atlantic City when something went wrong near Tuckahoe, and they came down in a mosquito-infested field.

"The mechanician went to a hardware shop to buy a bolt.

"'A bolt like that?' said the hardware man, examining the mechanician's broken sample. 'Well, I guess I can give you a bolt like that for a quarter.' Then, suddenly, he frowned. 'Hold on, though. You're an automobilist, ain't you? In that case it'll cost you $3.50.'

"But a raw-boned lad loafing in the shop gave a loud laugh and said:

"'He ain't no automobilist. He's a flyin'-machine man.'

"'In that case, stranger,' said the dealer quickly, 'the bolt will cost you $8, net and net.'"

For a long time doctors have been looking for a good substitute for human skin for grafting. The possibility has lately been demonstrated by taking the membrane that lines the shell of newly laid eggs, plastering it over the burn, and making it grow as human skin. The discoverer of this process was treating a child which had previously been burned, and in breaking a raw egg which he desired the child to swallow dropped part of the membrane by accident upon the burn and bandaged the wound. Later on it was discovered that the accidental placing of the egg membrane over the burn had caused cells to augment in number and gradually to extend over the wound until, at the end of some weeks, the surface was completely covered with the new skin. The treatment was called to the attention of physicians and it is now being used to cure scalds.—Harper's Weekly.

FIND GIRL LYING UPON STOVE.

Victim of Mishap in Critical Way From Burns and Gas.

Wilmington, Del., April 10—Found overcome by gas and burned on one wrist and her face, Miss Lillian Roach, aged 19, was removed from her boarding house yesterday to the Delaware Hospital, in a critical condition. She came here from Georgetown six months ago to work in a department store, and nothing was known of her plight until friends at the store telephoned to the house to learn why she had not reported for work. She was found in her night gown, her feet tangled in the hose connecting a gas stove with a jet in the wall, and the stove overturned, while gas flowed from a partly opened valve.

It is believed Miss Roach arose early this morning and while preparing the breakfast, fainted and fell across the stove, or that in the dark she stumbled over the hose and fainted when the stove burned her face and hand.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The will of Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, field for probate in Plymouth, Mass yesterday, leaves his estate with the exception of $600, to his widow, who is awaiting trial on the charge of having murdered him. The value of the estate is not given.

Mrs. Catherine McDonough, died yesterday, in the Harlem Hospital New York, of a peculiar accident. She was struck over the eye by a nursing bottle in the hands of her infant daughter, Mary. The accident occurred over a week ago, and, according to Coroner Physician Shultz brought on traumatic meningitis The injury was not at first regarded as serious, but it became so painful that Mrs. McDonough entered the hospital a few days ago.

A man who says he is James W. Matheson, 32 years ol, of Nova Scotia, is in the Washington asylum undergoing observation as to his sanity. He was arrested Tuesday night at the Washington navy yard where he had gone to enlist in the navy. The man's conversation led the police officers at the yard to believe that he might be deranged, and a long dirk was found in his pocket. The man said he had visited the White House grounds, but had not attempted to see the President. He talked about war with Great Britain and severely arraigned President Wilson for not having declared war on the United Kingdom.

The Municipal News, representing an experimental venture in the weekly newspaper field of Los Angeles, Cal., chronicled its own obituary yesterday. Thirty-two weekly editions of the paper had been published and circulated. Publication of the city paper ceased under an edict of the voters, who declared for its discontinuance when it was shown that the revenues virtually were nothing, while the expense use dthe entire appropriation of $36,000 a year.

Mayor Lew Shank, of Indianapolis whose scheme to reduce the cost of living by establishing municipal markets attracted wide publicity, is under arrest again. He wa sarrested by Clorine Emery, the only female constable in Indiana, for failing to pay his dog tax.

What was suposed to have been one of the frequent suicides of German school boys has turned out in the case of Ernest Tiemann, a lad 15 years old to have been a murder by a servant maid's lover who was bent on plunder. The lad's body was found hanging in his home last October, durin gthe absence of his parents. The police came to the conclusion that he had followed the example of so many other boys in Germany and committed suicide, but the mother was not satisfied with this explanation and employed private detectives to watch the maid who confessed that the boy was murdered by her lover, a burglar.

The answer of the European Powers to the note presented by the Balkan States, April 5, regarding the terms of mediation proposed March 24th by the Powers, will be of such a nature, declares an inspired telegram from Berlin to the Cologne Gazette, as to accelerate the conclusion of peace between the Balkan allies and Turkey. The great Powers the dispatch says, apparently have agreed upon the necessity of extending their naval blockade of the Montenegrin coast down to the mouth of the River Drin, in Albania, to prevent the landing of reinforcements or munitions of war at San Giovanni di Medua. King Nicholas of Montenegro, has, it is said, definitely arranged plans to abdicate his throne if force is employed by the European Powers against his little kingdom.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House' 'tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximately twenty-seven hundred (2,700)acres,of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in 3 equal annual payments at one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments, secured by retention of title till paid.

HARGROVE GRANTED RESPITE.

Governor Delays the Execution of Giant Negro Until April 23rd.

Richmond, April 10.—Governor Mann yesterday respited Frank Hargrove until April 23rd so that he might look more deeply into the case. Hargrove is the negro giant who was sentenced to die in the electric chair Friday of this week for murdering Mansfield Thornton and his wife, an aged negro couple, of Spotsylvania county.

He was charged with burning their home for purpose of robbery. The couple perished in the flames.

Hargrove stands six feet six in his stockings, and is built proportionately. He spent several weeks for safe keeping in the Henrico jail before his removal to the death chamber at the penitentiary recently.

It is understood that Governor Mann has received several communications within the past day or two which throws some new light on the case. What this information is he decines to say.

Hargrove is said to have served a term in the West Virginia penitentiary some years ago, and is reputed to be a bad man generally.

It is reported that the money he is supposed to have secured in the home of his alleged victims was buried near the scene of the crime.

Waifs Living in Poverty.

New York, April 10.—With the formal filing of a claim for $30,000 against the White Star line for the loss of the husband of Mrs.Marcelle Navaratti, who went down with the Titanic, it became known today that "Lolo" and "Momo", the Titanic waifs cared for by Miss Margaret Hayes, are now living in poverty with their mother, at Nice France,

F. K. Hayes, father of the young woman who brought the two children to New York, filed the claim for Mrs. Navaritti. He said that he had received word that the woman is working as a servant in an effort to support herself and the children. Overlooked in the distribution of the relief funds she did not even receive the $30 found on her husband's body.

Navaritti fled from France with "Lolo" and "Momo" and sailed on the Titanic. A few moments before the boat sank he handed the children to Miss Hayes. The children could not tell their names and it was weeks before the mother claimed them.

Four Workmen Killed.

Pensacola, Fla., April 10.—Four workmen were killed today when the ammonia boiler in one of the Moore Ice Works plants exploded, scattering 2,000 gallons of ammonia. Fumes from the ammonia overcame a number of firemen who attempted to enter the wrecked building. W. H. Vencel and C. J. Floyd, engineers, were among the killed.

SUICIDE OF MURDERER.

Convicted Man Cuts His Throat With a Potato Knife.

Freehold, N. J., April 10—Convicted only yesterday of murder in the first degree for the killing of Patrolman Charles F. Lippincott at Asbury Park, Charles D. Clayton cut his throat today with a potato knife, dying a few minutes later.

Clayton had been convicted for the crime once before—February 1, 1912, —and sencenteed to death the week begining March 11, -912, but got a new trial that ended yesterday. The murder occurred December 10, 1911.

Chief Justice Gummere, when the verdict was announced yesterday said he would return to Freehold Monday and impose the death sentence. An officer who sat in watch over Clayton had gone off duty and a trusty was set to watch the prisoner in his cell. Jail Warden Mitchell Quirk had visited the cell five minutes before Clayton committed suicide.

Clayton was 41 years old. He shot Lippincott while the latter was attempting to arrest him. He had previously threatened to murder the first officer that came to arrest him.

TO BE FINISHED BY WINTER.

Stockholders of Richmond-Washington High Road Hear Encouraging Reports.

Richmond, Va., April 10.—Stockholders of the Richmond-Washington highway corporation yesterday heard the first annual report of the board of directors, submitted by President Henry W. Anderson, carrying a most encouraging summary of the work of the year, and, with two exceptions, re-elected the directors for another term. The board will hold its annual meeting next Wednesday at noon for the purpose of electing officers and transacting such other business as may come before it.

The report of the directors shows that the greater part of the proposed highway has been surveyed and located and that work is now in progress on various sections of the road in nearly every county between Richmond and Washington. The work will be prosecuted now with the opening of spring with even greater diligence, and the directors state they expect to have it completed and open for travel by the coming of winter.

The route selected by the directors lays through Henrico, Hanover, Caroline and Epotetsylvania counties to Fredericksburg, thence through Stafford, Prince William, Fairfax and Alexandria counties to Washington parallel to the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and Washington Southern Railways. The length of this route is approximately 125 miles as against 145 miles via the next shortest route proposed.

The Dumfries district in Prince William, has not begun work on the road as located, but the supervisor has in hand about $6,000 of state aid funds and $1,000 or private contributions. With such aid as this corporation can give, it is believed that the road through this district can be improvide to Occoquan district has already begun work, and has constructed the road from Occaquan about two and one-half miles south. A considerable amount has been raised by private contributions along this road, and, with such aid as the corporation can give, it is believed that the work can be promptly completed.

The road to Occaquan and beyond Lorton has been improved by the United States reformatory, located near that point, and is in first class condition. The supervisor of the district between Lorton and Alexandria has in hand from state aid and county funds and private contributions a sum in excess of $13,000, and it is believed that there will be no trouble in arranging for the completion of the work to Alexandria

Between Alexandria and Washington there are several roads at present in very good condition, and these are being improved, and there will be no difficulty about an improved highway between these cities by the time the work south of Alexandria is completed.

Waiting for Slipper Snatcher.

New York, April 10.—Detectives were stationed today at the stairways of the principal subway stations to watch for the slipper snatcher whose operations have spread terror among the young women of the city who ease their dainty feet and ankles in low slippers and silk stockings. Miss Selma Graf, 15 years old, was the latest victim of this marauder's strange mania. Her silver buckled sliper was snatched from her foot as she ran up the 14th street station's stairs yesterday and she had to be aided as she hopped to the nearest shot store to buy another pair. Her's was the third case this week.

DECIDE NOT TO STRIKE.

Committee of Telephone Operators Will Submit Question to Vote.

Boston, Mass., April 10.—There will be no strike of telephone operators in Boston. This was definitely decided early today after representatives of the New England Telephone Company and their operators had been in conference throughout the night.

A vote will be taken by the operators tomorow morning at which they will formally ratify the action of their committee in effecting the agreement with the company. The new arrangement will go into effect June 1.

Although the threatened strike has apparently been settled, the action of the company in importing strike-breakers from New York, New Jersey, Chicago, Pittsburg and even more western points and installing them in the most fashionable hotels as might befit so many heiresses, threatens to create country-wide labor complications.

It is understood that an attempt will be made in Washington to pass a law forbidding such action. The Central Labor Union will also take up the matter with the Interstate Commerce Commission, it is expected.
